

How to Ride Light Rail

Riding Light Rail is easy! If you're new to Light Rail, here are some tips, so you can get started walking!

Purchase of Fares

Before boarding, purchase your fare at an automated kiosk at the station entry.

To use cash or credit cards, the kiosks at the station entry have touch screens with prompts to guide you and will calculate your fare. For cash purchases, kiosks will accept bills and coins, and will dispense change. No debit cards or checks.

Or, use your Orca Card – look for the yellow kiosk near the station entry and “tap-on” before boarding.

Or, you can download an app to your phone and pre-pay. Visit SoundTransit.org for details.

Tip: Keep your ticket or Orca Card handy. Inspectors will randomly spot check.

Tip: To avoid overcharging on your Orca Card, be sure to “tap on” and “tap off” at the yellow kiosk at the beginning and end of each trip. Charges to your Orca card are based on travel distance, and “tapping off” at your destination tells the system how much to charge.

Fares

Fares are based on length of travel, and range from $2.25 to $3.25, one-way for adults.

For people 65 and up, the fare is $1 one-way (note – a Sound Transit-issued ID is required. Go online for information: soundtransit.org/ride-with-us/how-to-pay/fares/regional-reduced-fare-permit).

For youth, ages 6 to 18 the fare is $1.50.

Kids age 5 and younger are free with fare-paying passenger.

(prices as of July, 2019)

Tip: If purchasing your fare at a kiosk at the Station, a round-trip ticket is the same price as purchasing two one-way fares, and is valid all day, between your starting and final destinations.
